12 IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
13 FOR THE CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
14 WESTERN DIVISION

15 Courthouse News Service,
16 Plaintiff,
17 vs.
18 Michael Planet, in his official capacity
19 as Court Executive Officer/Clerk of the 20 Ventura County Superior Court,
21 Defendant.

Case No. CV11-08083 SJO (FFMx)

JUDGMENT FOR DECLARATORY RELIEF AND
PERMANENT INJUNCTION
IN FAVOR OF PLAINTIFF
AND AGAINST DEFENDANT
MICHAEL PLANET

24 This action came before the Court on the Amended Complaint of Plaintiff
25 Courthouse News Service (“CNS”) for Injunctive and Declaratory Relief under 42
26 U.S.C. § 1983 and the First and Fourteenth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution
27 against Defendant Michael Planet, in his official capacity as Court Executive Officer
28 and Clerk of the Superior Court in and for the County of Ventura, California.

1        The Court having entered an Order on May 26, 2016, Granting in Part and
2 Denying in Part CNS's Motion for Summary Judgment, and Denying Defendant's
3 Motion for Summary Judgment, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and 4 DECREED that, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 58, Judgment be
5 entered in this action for Plaintiff CNS and against Defendant Planet as follows:

6        1.        On CNS's Prayer for Declaratory Relief, it is ORDERED,
7 ADJUDGED and DECREED that:

8                a.        There is a qualified First Amendment right of timely access to 9 newly filed civil complaints, including their associated exhibits.

10                b.        This qualified right of timely access attaches when new 11 complaints are received by a court, rather than after they are "processed" -- i.e., 12 rather than after the performance of administrative tasks that follow the court's 13 receipt of a new complaint.

14                c.        This qualified right of timely access attaches on receipt
15 regardless of whether courts use paper filing or e-filing systems.

16                d.        Planet's policy prior to June 18, 2014 of requiring that newly 17 filed complaints and their associated exhibits be "processed" prior to providing the 18 press and public with access to those complaints violates CNS's qualified First 19 Amendment right of timely access to newly filed complaints and their associated 20 exhibits because, for the reasons stated in this Court's May 26 Order, Planet has not 21 met his burden of proving that this policy is essential to preserve higher values and
22 narrowly tailored to serve that interest, as required to overcome CNS's qualified
23 First Amendment right of access, or that this policy constitutes a reasonable time,
24 place and manner restriction.

25                e.        Planet's June 18, 2014 scanning policy also violates CNS's
26 qualified First Amendment right of timely access to newly filed complaints and their 27 associated exhibits because, for the reasons stated in this Court's May 26 Order,
28 Planet has not met his burden of proving that this policy is essential to preserve

1 higher values and narrowly tailored to serve that interest, or that this policy
2 constitutes a reasonable time, place and manner restriction.

3       2. On CNS's Prayer for Injunctive Relief, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED
4 and DECREED that Planet is hereby permanently enjoined from refusing to make 5 newly filed unlimited civil complaints and their associated exhibits available to the 6 public and press until after such complaints and associated exhibits are "processed," 7 regardless of whether such complaints are filed in paper form or e-filed, and is 8 further directed to make such complaints and exhibits accessible to the public and 9 press in a timely manner from the moment they are received by the court, regardless
10 of whether such complaints are scanned, e-filed, or made available in any other
11 format, except in those instances where the filing party has properly moved to place
12 the complaint under seal.

12       3. On CNS's Prayer for Costs and Attorneys' Fees, it is ORDERED,
13 ADJUDGED and DECREED that CNS is the prevailing party in this action.
14 Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(d), CNS is awarded its costs in an 15 amount to be determined pursuant to the procedures specified in Local Rules 54-1 et
16 seq. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988, CNS is further awarded its costs and attorneys'
17 fees in an amount to be determined on noticed motion pursuant to Federal Rule of 18 Civil Procedure 54(d)(2) and Local Rules 54-10 and 54-11, which shall be filed 19 within 60 days of the date of entry of this judgment.
